

Testimonial Questions for Coach Jules

Name* Aaron Schutter, Reading, PA

What specific situations, relationship challenges, or frustrations with dating apps and other avenues led you Master Matchmakers and deciding to purchase this 6-Week Coaching program?*

2022 has been the staple of the greatest year of growth in my entire life. I made changes with the power deep inside me to better myself and be where I was to be ready to find the love of my life. I didn't have the experience or the knowledge to do any of this on my own. I initially wanted a matchmaker to find me the love of my life, but was strongly advised for my age and demographic to enroll in the online dating rehab program. As skeptical as I was and still hard-headed and skeptical I was through the early stages of the program, I had an open mind to give it a shot and out in the work to give this program a go! I had frustrations with online dating, approaching people, talking to women, making connections and being my best self. This was the choice I needed to make.

What have you enjoyed about having me as your coach? Is there anything specific about my approach, style, humor, instincts, or insights that you especially connected to or appreciated?*

I was warmly greeted by Kim the chief of staff at master matchmakers, a 20+ Year veteran in coaching, matching, and helping people find long-lasting and fulfilling relationships. Kim read me so well and knew without any certainty, that Jules was the best coach for me and my personality :) Jules has a warm, vibrant, bubbly, and outgoing energy in her spirit that will pull you in and guide you to your success :) her style is unbelievably personalized to every aspect to what is stopping, preventing, or over challenging you to your success in finding the love of your life. No matter what the situation is, Jules uses an infectious form of positivity in her methods that you will be able to apply in all aspects of your life that will build your self-worth and confidence to levels you've never imagined you had! I connected with her on a personal level, an intellectual level, and a positive mindset level. Jules is the best!!!

What 3 specific takeaways did you perhaps learn about yourself, deepen your understanding about, or are looking forward to implementing in your future relationships as a result of our work together? How did you feel that you have transformed or changed as a result?*

3 specific takeaways I learned were that dating & relationships are a two way street. That I must look at what I'm being given and not what I think it could be. That my value and who I am is not hindered by someone else's higher success or rejections.

The change comes from realizing no matter what you look like, no matter your upbringing, no matter the perils, and adventures you've walked through life... your's and my past does not define us. Being comfortable in your own skin is the greatest feeling you can ever have. Confidence is within yourself! and you hold that power deep inside you to execute that:)

Was there anything that surprised you about yourself, or what you took away from this experience?*

This experience has taught me to value who I am, accept my flaws, realize that attraction cannot be forced, rejection is part of growth and learning, that being my best self is easier than I ever imagined. This experience has shown me and surprised me how many qualities I had. Where all I needed to do is convey and present those qualities the right way and I would find what I'm looking for:) the most surprising thing I've learned, was to PLAY TO MY STRENGTHS!!!!

Were you happy with profile I wrote for you based on our work together? Do you think it will be helpful to use it on various apps and in your online dating prompts? Please elaborate in a few sentences:*

The profile that was written for me really conveys who I am to the truest and genuine form of my personality. It gives life to the energy that truly describes my kindness and caring nature:)

What were some specific things you enjoyed about being able to text me questions about anything as you go along, and feel supported by having a "concierge" dating doctor at your fingertips?*

The best part of what makes Jules stand out from others. Is that no matter the time or day, how much you need her, how much you text/email her, in critical situations, in time sensitive moments, in sadness or in doubt, Jules is unbelievably QUICK, elaborate, accurate, and passionately there for you this WHOLE journey like no one else! You will not find another person like Jules for your dating support!

What did you think of "Don't Eat the Scraps?" Do you feel like these concepts will be helpful for your journey going forward?*

This book gave me a different perspective from the eyes of a women. Jules pours her heart in here with personal stories of heartaches, heartbreaks, humor, and happiness^^ it let me see that stereotypes are not a way to view things, understand how the male and female mind work do mysteriously different, how the search for love isn't black and white, and that the challenges and paths we walk through life give us the greatest stories and growth to use and pass down.

Do you feel like humor plays a role in helping you learn concepts that will stick with you for life? Please describe if my style of delivering information and sense of humor have helped you and/or made the process fun.*

The more comfortable you are in your own skin, the more you can laugh at yourself, go-with-the-flow, reciprocate banter, and think of the ENTIRE dating process as FUN and not hard. The better you will be! Jules gives you funny and realistic words of wisdom that will make you rethink what is holding you back or preventing you from obtaining the love you deserve

Please check off ALL the areas where you feel like you've improved your skills and confidence after our time together: (Multiple boxes can be selected)*

- ✓ Initiating conversations with people online (or in person) and what kind of things to say.
- ✓ Understanding more about what you want in a partner
- ✓ Feeling more confident about your ability to attract a potential quality partner
- ✓ Feeling like your online profile, photos, prompts and personality really reflects who you are
- ✓ Feeling better about small talk and first date conversations
- ✓ Having some better ideas about where and how to meet people in real life outside of the apps
- ✓ Have a better idea of what to say when conversing with people online in chats
- ✓ Being more excited about your future and the belief that love is out there for you to find with the right person
- ✓ Have a better sense of how to convert an online conversation into having a phone conversation or meeting in person
- ✓ Have a better understanding of when and how to move into the more physical realm on dates (kissing, sex, etc)
- ✓ Had a lot of fun :)
- ✓ Other : Just not overthinking things 🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔

On a scale of 1-8, how confident did you feel before, and how confident do you feel now about how to approach the dating apps and meeting people in real life going forward based on our work together?*

BEFORE – 2

NOW GOING FORWARD - 8

How would you explain our work or process to someone who is thinking of doing it? Describe who this kind of work is perfect for.*

If you're struggling with where to find love, how to make approaches, how to present yourself, are unsure of your options, are skeptical of online dating, have a library of questions, are in doubt, eager and determined. Then is the program for you!!!

How likely are you to recommend this program to other people who could benefit (1= least likely to 5=most likely)?*

5

Do you see yourself ever wanting to purchase some individual 30 or 60 min coaching sessions some time in the future for further support? (If "other" please elaborate).*

Yes

Is there anything else you'd like to add about our work together?*

Personalized communication, thinking outside the box, empathy, mindset rewiring, tough love when warranted, bluntness when it's due, praise when it's earned, honesty all the way. That's the Jules way:)

Do you give permission for me to be able to use this testimonial in a post, in my program materials, or on my website (first name only)?*

Yes

Testimonial Questions for Coach Jules

Name* Lindsey Miranda, Billerica, MA

What specific situations, relationship challenges, or frustrations with dating apps and other avenues led you Master Matchmakers and deciding to purchase this 6-Week Coaching program?*

I wanted to date smarter, not harder. I had confidence in some areas, but little in others. I felt like the type of support MMM offers through this coaching program would give me useful tools and helpful insights I wouldn't have access to otherwise.

What have you enjoyed about having me as your coach? Is there anything specific about my approach, style, humor, instincts, or insights that you especially connected to or appreciated?*

Yes, I've enjoyed working with Jules very much! She's approachable, direct, funny, and very good at her job. She always took time to make sure we were on the same page, ensuring my questions and concerns were addressed. I felt like she really cared about me and gave me the helping hand I needed to re-enter the dating pool with greater ease.

What 3 specific takeaways did you perhaps learn about yourself, deepen your understanding about, or are looking forward to implementing in your future relationships as a result of our work together? How did you feel that you have transformed or changed as a result?*

1) I feel more confident in my approach to dating overall. I feel like I have the tools I need to be able to accurately represent myself and the things that are most important to me.

2) Validation that I deserve love and appreciation as much as the next person, and the gift of feeling Seen by someone who's invested in my understanding, growth, and success. It gave me a boost of confidence needed to re-enter the dating pool.

3) I'm more comfortable talking about things like my own discomfort, stating my boundaries more clearly, and spotting old habits with more ease and less judgement.

Was there anything that surprised you about yourself, or what you took away from this experience?*

Actually, I don't feel very surprised at all. I think I got exactly what I was hoping to get out of the experience, plus the bonus joy of truly enjoying having Jules as my coach and as a person. Ok, I was surprised by Jules's enthusiasm for my writing--so perhaps that's the real surprise? Getting unexpected validation that my words have weight and often connect with others' feelings and experiences was a real surprise, but perhaps one of the most valuable things that happened during my coaching.

Were you happy with profile I wrote for you based on our work together? Do you think it will be helpful to use it on various apps and in your online dating prompts? Please elaborate in a few sentences:*

Yes! I loved my profile! I felt very validated and seen. It has already been useful on Hinge and Match dot com, but especially in helping me be able to see myself as someone capable of dating. I think it helps me filter for and select people who are a better overall fit for me, as well as helping me remember why I'm doing this in the first place. Having a written bit that we worked on together that I can return to any time I want--to re-center myself, remind me why I'm doing this, etc. it's all in the profile. The process of writing the components for the profile was especially helpful for me.

What were some specific things you enjoyed about being able to text me questions about anything as you go along, and feel supported by having a "concierge" dating doctor at your fingertips?*

Yes. I wish I'd taken advantage of it closer to the beginning of my coaching session, but I wasn't sure what to ask for awhile. It was very comforting; I wish it was a little easier to transfer all the golden nuggets we got over text into a written, more permanent format for future use, which is the only place I feel like email has advantage of a more accessible paper trail. It was really nice for my anxiety brain to be able to reach out any time for any thing big or small and have a brain I trusted to bounce off of. Very valuable and I'm appreciative of the opportunity.

What did you think of "Don't Eat the Scraps?" Do you feel like these concepts will be helpful for your journey going forward?*

I liked it overall! I thought it was an appropriate length, with good details and memorable storytelling. Especially early in dating, these concepts help me feel more grounded in reality.

Do you feel like humor plays a role in helping you learn concepts that will stick with you for life? Please describe if my style of delivering information and sense of humor have helped you and/or made the process fun.*

Yes, and humor is such an important part of my approach to dating. Jules's style of delivery is witty and direct paired with skillful compassion. When she spots something that could lead to a deeper understanding, it's not like it's a character failing on my part. It's something we can talk about, play with in a different light through humor, and it makes the information easier to take in.

Please check off ALL the areas where you feel like you've improved your skills and confidence after our time together:

- ✓ Understanding more about what you want in a partner
- ✓ Feeling more confident about your ability to attract a potential quality partner
- ✓ Feeling like your online profile, photos, prompts and personality really reflects who you are
- ✓ Being more excited about your future and the belief that love is out there for you to find with the right person
- ✓ Had a lot of fun :)

On a scale of 1-8, how confident did you feel before, and how confident do you feel now about how to approach the dating apps and meeting people in real life going forward based on our work together?*

BEFORE - 4

NOW GOING FORWARD - 7

How would you explain our work or process to someone who is thinking of doing it? Describe who this kind of work is perfect for.*

Someone to hold your hand, call out your unhelpful bullshit in a helpful, supportive way, while dusting you off and getting you ready to get out there again, tiger. If you're pretty sure you want to date with intention of finding Your Person but lack clarity, followthrough, direction, or just aren't sure what else to do next...this is for you.

How likely are you to recommend this program to other people who could benefit?* (5 being most likely)

5

Do you see yourself ever wanting to purchase some individual 30 or 60 min coaching sessions some time in the future for further support? (If "other" please elaborate).*

Other: depends on my financial situation

Is there anything else you'd like to add about our work together?*

I really appreciated that I felt seen and validated by Jules and her work. I loved the various exercises we went through and are tools I'll be able to carry forward and use in the future. Her vocal, adamant support of my own talents was incredibly validating. Jules went above and beyond in our work together, and I feel very grateful to have gotten to work with her and pick that magnificent brain <3

Do you give permission for me to be able to use this testimonial in a post, in my program materials, or on my website (first name only)?*

Yes

Testimonial Questions for Coach Jules

Name* A.E., Detroit MI

What specific situations, relationship challenges, or frustrations with dating apps and other avenues led you Master Matchmakers and deciding to purchase this 6-Week Coaching program?*

I did not have a specific issue, but I was frustrated with the overall quality of the matches I was receiving on dating apps.

What have you enjoyed about having me as your coach? Is there anything specific about my approach, style, humor, instincts, or insights that you especially connected to or appreciated?*

Jules was great in sharpening my approach and helping me improve my profile. It was great to have a coach who could give great advice in a light and humorous way!

What 3 specific takeaways did you perhaps learn about yourself, deepen your understanding about, or are looking forward to implementing in your future relationships as a result of our work together? How did you feel that you have transformed or changed as a result?*

1) I'm a thinker by nature and didn't realize that sometimes that can turn me into a standoff-ish person, 2) Jules helped me gain the confidence that my issue was more to do with not having found the right person than anything else, 3) Jules coaching put me into a more aggressive mindset in terms of pursuing romantic possibilities than I otherwise would be.

Was there anything that surprised you about yourself, or what you took away from this experience?*

I don't think there anything that was especially surprising but it was fun to go through the process, have some pictures taken, and set up my match profile with Jules!

Were you happy with profile I wrote for you based on our work together? Do you think it will be helpful to use it on various apps and in your online dating prompts? Please elaborate in a few sentences.*

I was very happy with the profile Jules ghostwrote for me. It helped directly lead to my next relationship! The profile helped to give potential matches a quick and powerful preview of who I am.

What were some specific things you enjoyed about being able to text me questions about anything as you go along, and feel supported by having a "concierge" dating doctor at your fingertips?*

I accidentally texted my future girlfriend a screengrab meant for Jules, and Jules absolutely saved the day as I was freaking out! Jules came up with a great explanation for me to use and it worked!

What did you think of my book, "Don't Eat the Scraps?" Do you feel like these concepts will be helpful for your journey going forward?*

I thought it was a great book and provided me with a new perspective. It's always important to be careful with someone's heart, but the book emphasize how powerful a fleeting word or phrase can be. When I started dating my new girlfriend I made sure to always back up my words with concrete actions.

Do you feel like humor plays a role in helping you learn concepts that will stick with you for life? Please describe if my style of delivering information and sense of humor have helped you and/or made the process fun.*

Jules's sense of humor helped bring out my humor more, and made me more comfortable with it. It also kept things light during some serious discussions, which I absolutely appreciated. Dating can be tough and its not fun to think that you need a coach.

Please check off ALL the areas where you feel like you've improved your skills and confidence after our time together:

- ✓ Initiating conversations with people online (or in person) and what kind of things to say.
- ✓ Feeling more confident about your ability to attract a potential quality partner
- ✓ Feeling like your online profile, photos, prompts and personality really reflects who you are
- ✓ Feeling better about small talk and first date conversations
- ✓ Have a better idea of what to say when conversing with people online in chats
- ✓ Being more excited about your future and the belief that love is out there for you to find with the right person
- ✓ Had a lot of fun :)

How would you explain our work or process to someone who is thinking of doing it? Describe who this kind of work is perfect for.*

I think this process is for someone who is determined to meet a new partner and wants a serious relationship. A person will thrive in this program if they have at least a basic understanding of who they are and what they want. Jules will help you refine your approach, give you key tools and advice, and encourage you as you meet new people on your dating journey. Her 1:1 sessions are really key to getting to know her and absorbing her lessons.

Is there anything else you'd like to add about our work together?*

Nope, but thank you for your wonderful support and advice Jules!

Testimonial Questions for Coach Jules

Name* C.O., Long Beach, CA

What specific situations, relationship challenges, or frustrations with dating apps and other avenues led you Master Matchmakers and deciding to purchase this 6-Week Coaching program?*

I was a total novice to the dating world and didn't know where to start. There were things working against me that I needed to overcome in order to be successful.

What have you enjoyed about having me as your coach? Is there anything specific about my approach, style, humor, instincts, or insights that you especially connected to or appreciated?*

You are very personable and kind with a very good sense of humor and yet very direct when necessary. You made me feel very comfortable and safe with you.

What 3 specific takeaways did you perhaps learn about yourself, deepen your understanding about, or are looking forward to implementing in your future relationships as a result of our work together? How did you feel that you have transformed or changed as a result?*

The big one would be conversation starters Giving my best but not my all to relationships Allowing the relationship to grow naturally

Was there anything that surprised you about yourself, or what you took away from this experience?*

I learned I need to listen more and My greatest take away is that I should give the relationship my best not my all.

Were you happy with profile I wrote for you based on our work together? Do you think it will be helpful to use it on various apps and in your online dating prompts? Please elaborate in a few sentences:*

The profile was great. I loved it. I used it immediately and will continue to adapt it to various platforms I use.

What were some specific things you enjoyed about being able to text me questions about anything as you go along, and feel supported by having a "concierge" dating doctor at your fingertips?*

That was very good and efficient, especially given the fact that i didn't confide in anyone.

What did you think of "Don't Eat the Scraps?" Do you feel like these concepts will be helpful for your journey going forward?*

Yeah! Naturally I would assume that I'm further in a relationship than I really am; but, since reading the book 'Don't Eat the scraps', I learned to give time to relationships to grow.

Do you feel like humor plays a role in helping you learn concepts that will stick with you for life? Please describe if my style of delivering information and sense of humor have helped you and/or made the process fun.*

You have a good sense of humor and this helped me to feel more comfortable and open minded.

Please check off ALL the areas where you feel like you've improved your skills and confidence after our time together:

- ✓ Initiating conversations with people online (or in person) and what kind of things to say.
- ✓ Feeling more confident about your ability to attract a potential quality partner
- ✓ Feeling like your online profile, photos, prompts and personality really reflects who you are
- ✓ Feeling better about small talk and first date conversations
- ✓ Having some better ideas about where and how to meet people in real life outside of the apps
- ✓ Have a better idea of what to say when conversing with people online in chats
- ✓ Have a better sense of how to convert an online conversation into having a phone conversation or meeting in person
- ✓ Have a better understanding of when and how to move into the more physical realm on dates (kissing, sex, etc)
- ✓ Had a lot of fun :)

On a scale of 1-8, how confident did you feel before, and how confident do you feel now about how to approach the dating apps and meeting people in real life going forward based on our work together?*

BEFORE - 4

NOW GOING FORWARD - 6

How would you explain our work or process to someone who is thinking of doing it? Describe who this kind of work is perfect for.*

This coaching program is good for people who have little or no experience in dating and need help in getting started.

How likely are you to recommend this program to other people who could benefit?* (1 is least likely and 5 is most likely)

5

Do you see yourself ever wanting to purchase some individual 30 or 60 min coaching sessions sometime in the future for further support? (If "other" please elaborate).*

Yes

Is there anything else you'd like to add about our work together?*

There is a lot that I have learned, and I need some time to put them to practice.

Do you give permission for me to be able to use this testimonial in a post, in my program materials, or on my website (first name only)?*

Yes, but I'd prefer it to be anonymous